

EXTERNAL Researcher in ESCOP4GREEN Project

Education and training

- 2019 Graduation in Law summa cum laude at the University of Macerata
- 2020-current Phd Student in Legal and Social Sciences, curriculum “Civil Law and Constitutional Legality” at the University of Camerino

Main Work Experience

- 2020-current Teaching Assistant in Private law and Civil law at the University of Macerata

Research activity

Scientific CV *

Francesca Ferretti is a Phd Candidate (XXXVI Cycle). She is developing a research project on uses of AI in the health sector. She is studying medical liability, health data protection, the right of new technologies, such as AI, smart contract and blockchain. In particular, she is now analyzing the juridical consequences of the use of technological innovation in the energy sector, with a focus on the consumer protection.

Funded research projects *

Insert a list of funded research projects from last 10 years relative to the research topic, with funding agency, call details, role on the project and budget

Keywords *

insert max 10 keywords separated comma (,)

Energy – smart contract – consumer – technology – blockchain – digitalization.

Bibliography and bibliometry

List of best papers published in the last 10 years relative to research topic *

minimum 5 up to 10